CHAPTER V SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

Article 29. The Board of Directors shall hold an annual general meeting of shareholders within four months after the end of the Company's accounting period.

General meetings of shareholders other than that specified under the first paragraph shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

The Board of Directors may call extraordinary general meetings whenever they think appropriate, or one or more shareholders holding shares in aggregate of no less than 10 percent of the total number of shares sold, may at any time subscribe their names and clearly state the subjects and reasons in a letter requesting the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary general meeting. In this case, the Board of Directors shall convene the shareholders meeting within the period of 45 days from the date of receipt of such letter from the shareholders.

If the Board of Directors fails to convene the meeting within the period specified under the third paragraph, the shareholders who have subscribed their names or other shareholders with the shareholdings in the required aggregate amount may convene the meeting by themselves within the period of 45 days from the expiration of the period under the third paragraph. In this case, such meeting shall be deemed to be convened by the Board of Directors, provided that the Company shall be responsible for any necessary expenses incurred from the convening of such meeting and for reasonable facilitation.

In the case where the number of shareholders present at the meeting convened by the shareholders under the fourth paragraph is not sufficient to constitute a quorum, the shareholders under the fourth paragraph shall be jointly responsible to the Company for the expenses incurred from the convening of such meeting.

Article 30. In summoning a shareholders' meeting, the board of directors shall prepare a notice specifying the place, date, time, agenda and matters to be proposed to the meeting together with adequate details by clearly indicating whether such matters are proposed for acknowledgment, for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, as well as the board's opinions on such matters. The notice must be sent to the shareholders not less than 7 days prior to the date of the meeting and be advertised in a newspaper for 3 consecutive days not less than 3 days prior to the date of the meeting.

Article 31. At a shareholders' meeting, there shall be not less than 25 shareholders and/or the shareholders' proxies (if any) or not less than half the total number of shareholders and holding altogether not less than one-third of the total issued shares attending the meeting to constitute a quorum.

If at any shareholders' meeting the number of shareholders attending the meeting does not constitute the quorum within one hour after the appointed time, the meeting, if summoned by the requisition of shareholders, shall be canceled. If the meeting was not summoned by the requisition of shareholders, another meeting shall be summoned and a notice summoning the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders not less than 7 days before the meeting and at such subsequent meeting no quorum shall be necessary.

Article 32. A resolution passed by the shareholders' meetings shall require of the following number of:
